SAINT LUCIA

What were Caribbean hotels like before trade winds were replaced by blasts of air conditioning, when morning exercise was a walk on the beach and when you sat watching the sunset instead of cable TV?

You can still find that Classic Caribbean at Anse Chastanet on Saint Lucia's quiet southwestern coast where two magical peaks, the Pitons, leap from the sea and the mountains are covered with luminous greenery.

*A*rchitect owner Nick Troubetzkoy believes passionately in nature. So he created a hotel that makes the foliage and the flowers, the perfumes and the peaks, the sea and the bird song an integral part of your vacation experience.

The estate encompasses 600 lush tropical acres stretching over two valleys and bordering two soft sand beaches. In the valley behind Anse Mamin beach, guests can explore the historical ruins of an 18th century plantation.

ANSE MAMIN BEACH

ANSE CHASTANET BEACH

Not only do you get a World Heritage Site anchored by the twin peaks on land, the resort's two crystal-clear bays are part of a designated marine reserve protecting miles of colorful coral reefs teeming with tropical fish.

Thirty-seven rooms tiptoe up a flower decked hillside. To make the most of the panoramic views and the refreshing tradewinds, octagonal whitewashed cottages come with wraparound flower draped balconies and louvered windows.

SUPERIOR HILLSIDE ROOM

Spacious Hillside Deluxe and Premium rooms underscore the visionary, innovative, sometimes whimsical side of Nick Troubetzkoy: in one suite, the balcony is built around a full-grown red gommier tree; in another a flamboyant tree drapes its red blossoms around the balcony. Some have their 4th wall open entirely to the vistas, yet are completely private.

HILLSIDE DELUXE ROOM

*A*nse Chastanet's ever growing art collection provides a visual feast of its own. There are impressive wooden sculptures and plaques, earthy burlap compositions, painted "sky ceilings" and vibrant acrylic paintings by both locally and internationally acclaimed artists.

*A*nse Chastanet's one-of-a-kind Casuarina suite features a brand new 160 square-foot pool surrounded by a 135-square foot deck in the middle of the hillside resort with its breathtaking views of the storied Piton mountains and the surrounding azure waters. The suite can be inter-connected with an additional bedroom.

The one-of-a-kind Beach House suite is located on the north corner of Anse Chastanet beach where you can sit and relax, looking out over the sparkling Caribbean Sea, watching sunsets year round from your elevated brick deck in the landscaped oceanfront garden. The interior is bright and airy, bathed in warm Caribbean sunlight shining through its French doors and windows.
