R ising majestically above the 600 acre beach front resort of Anse Chastanet, Nick Troubetzkoy's Jade Mountain is a cornucopia of organic architecture celebrating Saint Lucia's stunning scenic beauty.

*A*rchitect owner Nick Troubetzkoy has expanded upon his philosophy of building in harmony with Caribbean nature in his creation of Jade Mountain. The bold architectural design – individual bridges leading to exceptional infinity pool sanctuaries and rugged stoned-faced columns reaching towards the sky – makes Jade Mountain one of the Caribbean’s most mesmerizing resort experiences.

“GALAXY” SANCTUARY JEI

Expect grand sweeping spaces where bedroom, living area and an extravagant private infinity pool glide into one another to form extraordinary platforms floating out into nature. With the fourth wall entirely absent, Jade Mountain’s sanctuaries are stage-like settings from which to embrace the full glory of Saint Lucia’s Pitons World Heritage Site, and of course, the eternal Caribbean Sea.

All of the sanctuaries celebrate an unparalleled view of the Pitons and the Caribbean Sea. In all of the sanctuaries, the 4th wall is open to the views while at the same time allowing for complete privacy. Four rate categories of infinity pool sanctuaries have been created to reflect the square footage of the sanctuaries and size of pool: Star, Moon, Sun and Galaxy.

The Infinity Pools

The private ozone-treated, heated infinity pools range from 450 to over 900 square feet. All pools feature shallow water lounging areas in addition to a large swimming area. At night they are illuminated with fibre optic lights. Guests can personally control the colour of the fibre optics in their pool.

All of the pools have been surfaced entirely in one-of-a-kind iridescent glass tiles, which have been specifically designed for Jade Mountain. Each of the infinity pools has its own individually designed glass tile color scheme which is then carried onto the individual bathrooms, giving each sanctuary its own unique personality.

*W*rapped around an infinity pool with a dazzling kaleidoscope of colors, the Jade Mountain Club caters exclusively to resident guests, celebrating James Beard Award winner Chef Allen Susser's "Jade Cuisine." Vegan and vegetarian options are always available. There are additional restaurants and bars at the adjoining sister property Anse Chastanet.

Hovering in space above the Jade Mountain Club is the Celestial Terrace, perfect for sunset cocktails or star-gazing.
